1. OPC Telephone Number

Telephone numbers assigned by OPC to customers shall not be used for any illegal or illegitimate purpose. Customer agrees that any telephone number that is assigned to Customer by OPC is and shall remain the property of OPC. In the event that the service is cancelled, the telephone number allocated to the Customer shall be relinquished, for use as we see fit.

2. Billing

Billing is based on the volume of calls. Inbound or outbound calls are all registered by the telephony system and charged accordingly. This includes calls such as wrong numbers, voicemail, hangups, telemarketers and callers who do not leave a message.

All amounts payable by Customer will be charged to Customer's Credit Card amounts monthly or for any amounts owed under this Agreement including but not limited to, past due balances, restoration of the deposit if applicable, or as a result of any other fee incurred by OP. Direct Deposit in Australian dollars can be arranged with prior consent from OPC.

If any amount payable by Customer is not paid when due (including, without limitation, due to a charge to Customer's Credit Card being declined or Direct Deposit not received):

- (a) Customer may be charged penalty or interest fees at the highest rate permitted by law until such amount is paid in full, and
- (b) Customer will be responsible for all reasonable expenses (including collection and legal fees) incurred by OPC in collecting such amount.

Should price increases become necessary, OPC will give the customer 14 days notice in writing/email.

3. Operating Hours
